

Call for Art

Call for art submissions to be published in the Art of Pollination Alaska Edition

Saving and Celebrating our Pollinators!
Pollinator Week is June 17-23, 2013!

Pollinating animals, including bees, birds, butterflies, bats, beetles and others, are vital to our delicate ecosystem, supporting terrestrial wildlife, providing healthy watershed, and more. Pollinator Week is a movement to get the importance of pollinators' message out to as many people as possible. Chugach Arts Council supports that endeavor and invite you to be a part of that.

Chugach Arts Council is publishing a full size, soft cover art book highlighting the pollinators of Alaska.

The purpose of the project is not only to bring awareness to the importance of protecting and preserving our pollinators, but also as fund raising project for the Chugach Arts Council.

The book will be released by early June in time for National Pollinator Week and will be available for purchase online.

Who: Artists who live in or love Alaska

What: Original art depicting at least one of many pollinators found in Alaska.

- Does not need to be a new creation
- Does not need to be scientifically accurate, artistic representations are welcome

Artist will donate use of image for the purpose of this publication and promotional pieces for such in print or web.

At least 20 artists will be selected to be included in this volume, the decisions of the review committee are final. If your work is selected to be included you will receive the following benefits.

- Your work will be published and promoted to a wide audience around the country
- Each artist be identified, acknowledged and will have a short bio (50 words or less) & website info
- You will know that you are supporting the preservation of our pollinators
- You will be a part of supporting the arts in the Chugach region.
